I had my first taste of an army man when I was only 16 years old, and once I'd had that experience, I never looked back.

I was always more than pleased that my large body, and big, firm tits made sure that there wasn't a man I couldn't get into my bed if I wanted him. I knew men liked having sex with me, I've always enjoyed it and was never one for playing hard to get. To me, if you like sex, you want as many men as you can, and there's no point in not making use of the body you've got.

I married quite young, an army man, of course, and that's when my sex life really started to take off. The funny thing is my husband never caught me out, or perhaps he preferred to turn a blind eye, I'm not quite sure. Well, you can imagine what it's like on an army posting, men everywhere with only the wife to keep them happy. In many places local girls won't look at a soldier, their reputation is bad. My husband is a good lover, but I'm no different to most people, I like variety in sex. Also, I could never resist the great temptations that were put in my way. The first time I was led astray was by a group of Black Watch who had recently returned from overseas, they were randy and raring to go. We went to a party they'd thrown and in no time at all I'd had a few drinks too many. I went into a room to see to my make up and came across four lads trying to convince one girl that she should sleep with each one of them. When I appeared she made her escape and left me alone with them. I could see by the way that they looked at me, their eyes stopping at the bulge of my bosom under my soft jersey, that they were wondering if they had a chance with me. I don't suppose I'd have dared to encourage them if it hadn't been for the fact that I knew my husband had left a while before to go on guard duty. I sat down on the bed and started doing my hair, touching up my lipstick and generally pretending I was concentrating on my reflection in the dressing table mirror. They'd all stopped talking and I could see they were watching me. I could feel myself getting worked up, as I was convinced if I led them on a bit I'd get raped by the lot of them and that idea really got me going.

The noise from downstairs would drown my screams, if that was what I'd had in mind. Slowly one of the men moved towards me, pulled me back on the bed and forced his mouth down on to mine. I struggled, it made it all the more exciting for me, and for them I know.

other hand would go down between my legs and start a soft stroking. Once the men realised they had been told the truth they were on for a screw with me they'd always wait until I'd finished my little exhibition before grabbing me. My favourite place to have sex was in the shower.

It was always in my own home that I had sex, except for one occasion when I went to the cinema on my own. I'd been sitting for a while, enjoying the film which had a lot of sexy love scenes in it. Then I felt a hand on my leg and turning my head I recognised a friend of my husbands. He got the shock of his life when he realised it was me he was taking liberties with, but I stopped him moving his hand. Then I took his other hand and put it under my coat. Eagerly he felt my tit. I whispered to him to stay where he was while I popped out to the ladies. There I took off my blouse and bra, slipped out of my panties and then leaving on my skirt, stockings and coat I went back to my seat. As I sat down there was a juicy scene on the screen, the friend, who'd obviously thought I wouldn't come back, gratefully put his hand under my coat again. I felt his erection huge when he discovered my breasts, all big and naked under my coat. We sat there watching the film, his hand up my skirt and in my coat bringing me off, and me giving him a good time under the jacket he'd put across his lap.

When we left the cinema we parted company, but I couldn't resist giving a soldier a flash of my tits, as I opened my coat for a minute when I walked down my street. His polite smile when he recognised me changed to wide eyed disbelief as he saw my big bouncy tits for a moment as I passed him. When my husband decided to leave the army without signing on again. I was very sorry I've had the odd lover since, but nothing to compare to those hundreds of healthy, tough soldiers that I'd had playing with my tits in the good old days.

My wife loves to pose for photographs, and as she has a superb figure, with a very full 42" bust measurement, you can imagine why photography is my favourite pastime. It has taken me years to finally her to pose in the nude and even go further with all kinds of different sexy pictures. Eventually she gave in and was so pleased with the first set of nude pictures I took of her that I wasn't too difficult to encourage her to do something a little more sexy. Recently I took some pictures of her that were really exactly what I wanted. There she was, stark naked, her hands at work on her bosom and between her legs. It so happened that I took one to work with me, carrying it in my wallet as there's nothing I enjoy more than to masturbate looking at my wife's larger than large tits. Well a work mate of mine saw me sneaking a look at the picture, and asked to see it. He went on and on until I finally showed it to him. He's never met my wife and thought it was from a magazine or book. He was knocked out and said if I could get any more, he'd buy them off me. I can't explain how much it got me worked up to think of men looking at my sexy wife and probably getting an erection, not knowing she belonged to me. I had a whole extra set printed and sold them to my mate. I know he sold off a few to other men in the factory. Finally, a bit drunk one night after a session in the pub I told my wife I'd shown her picture to someone who didn't know her. For all her previous worries about letting me take pictures of her nude, she went wild at the idea. That night in bed she was really hot and every time now I tell her that there are several men carrying her photo, she wants sex. I'm really enjoying myself and we both talk about how there are any number of men getting worked up over the look of her tits. I'm hoping to send you in a new study of her that I'm doing next week which will add to the ranks of men having a good time with my wife, without actually laying a hand on her. I think more readers should persuade their wives that there's nothing sexier than posing in the nude and letting the world see a really good pair of tits.

W.F. Reading.

NOTHING BUT THE BREAST

I don't know whether anyone else has a sex life like mine. I have always been a fan of big breasts and my first wife although she had a good figure never understood my deep attraction to large tits. I had been a widower for some years

Even when we were posted to Hong Kong with all those lovely Oriental girls around, I was still a favourite with the barracks. By the time we got that posting my husband was an R.S.M. and being older seemed to make the young soldiers even more keen to get into my bra. Also I think they enjoyed having the RSM's wife behind his back. It gave an extra kick to the whole performance. The new recruits would pass the word round and I would answer a knock on my door when my husband was safely out, and there would be a young man with the bulge in his trousers showing as soon as I opened the door wearing one of my sexy dressing gowns. I would lead them on for quite a while, teasing and taunting, showing them a lot of my breasts. I would always act very motherly and normal until I could see the man was sure he'd had his leg pulled and that I was a respectable housewife who just happened to have the 40 plus bosom he'd been thinking about for weeks on end. I would make a cup of tea, making sure that as I bent over to serve it the soldier got a good glimpse of my tits in a nice half cup bra, the flesh spilling over the 36 I wore. In a bra that much too small for me I looked enormous. Once I could see him really confused I'd calmly open my dressing gown, and put one hand into the bra, pull out a breast and begin to fondle it. My

Two others held me down while the man who was sticking his tongue in my mouth got to work taking off my jersey. The other lad put his hand up my skirt, and began pulling off my suspender belt and stockings, dragging at my knickers to get them down. I remember I had on a full skirt and it didn't take him long to have me naked under the skirt. Once they'd got my top off, my bra was undone and ripped off.

They all started at my breasts, the loose jersey hadn't given them a clear idea of the size of me. They all started grabbing at my tits, talking on and on about what a fantastic pair I'd got, and what luck they were in to get their hands on a girl with such big ones.

Next thing I knew I had one man over me he pushed himself in my mouth, me still pretending it was a case of rape, but he knew by the way I was working on him that they certainly weren't upsetting me. I had each hand round another two of them and they were squeezing each of my breasts and the way they bit my nipples nearly drove me to coming before anyone had mounted me. The last one shoved himself under my skirt and with a sharp thrust was in me. The size of him was fantastic and that was the first time I let out a scream. When he'd finished the next one mounted me and took me very hard and fast. Three of them had had sex with me and I was so wet with excitement and I'd come twice when the last one was ready for his bit. He wanted to come off between my tits. His two hands squeezed my breasts tight around him and he jerked off all over my big, white bosom. The sight of that got one of the others hard again so he put it in me again. I came the last time with one man taking me and the other pumping away and squeezing my breasts. Even when they were all finished they couldn't bear to let me go. So they ordered me to sit up and play with my tits while they watched I did as I was told, lifting my breasts, popping a nipple into my mouth while with my other hand I softly stroked my breasts, all the time those four pairs of eyes were feasting on me. I began to talk to them asking if they liked girls with lovely big ones like I'd got. That had me wanting to come again as I love to show off my bosom and the whole rape scene had been the most exciting time I'd ever had done to me. I worked away with my breasts until I was almost there, then spreading my legs wide they watched fascinated, I quickly rubbed myself until with a lovely shiver I came in front of them all.

After that night I really began to realise that soldiers are sexy men and as long as I was careful I could have as much sex as I wanted. Over the years I got a name for being a good 'ride' and I never cared that all the soldiers knew I was an easy lay, and my reputation for being itchy for a screw got around.

and was approaching mid fifties when I met my present wife. She is younger than me and she has the most magnificent pair I've ever seen. They measure 45 inches and thrust out from her body to a degree that makes other men turn and stare at her in the street. Naturally I was very anxious to get my hands on these wonderful breasts and the first time we went to bed together is something I'll always remember. She took off her blouse and bra and let me handle her breasts and nipples for most of the evening. She confided to me that all her feeling for sex was in her breasts and that actual intercourse left her rather cold. I didn't mind at all and I finally let her bring me off between her huge soft tits. Since then we've married and settled down to a very happy and satisfying sex life. We concentrate all our love making and sexual satisfaction on her breasts. She always strips to the waist when we are alone and she likes to think of new ways to excite me. She has a selection of different bras, and at times she will give me a real strip tease act, wearing only G-string and tassles on her low slung bra. I use all different ways of getting her worked up by massage and one of the things she loves is to feel my rampant tool between her breasts, resting in her deep cleavage. We hardly ever have intercourse as my wife only reaches an orgasm from having her nipples and breasts played with. It keeps me happy, as if I'm honest I much prefer this breast type sex to ordinary sex.

NIPPLE TEASER

I must qualify for your correspondence columns as a breast fanatic.

I particularly like breasts which are very large indeed, so large indeed that the woman (by some standards) is practically deformed.

Some people think that I must be a bit mental to look this way, but who cares about them?

I used to have a girlfriend who really matched up to these specifications — she was so outsize that she actually had to lean back a little when she walked, just so that she could keep her balance.

She was so enormous, in fact, that she had great trouble in buying sweaters etc. that would fit her, and had to have most of her clothes tailored for her, at some expense.

I found her completely fantastic sexually, for not only did she have these enormous breasts, but she was amazingly sensitive round that area. If I used to play with them, or stroke them, she would actually have an orgasm after a little while, just from my hands stroking and arousing those beautiful great love sacks, as I used to call them.

I loved to have her mount on top of me, and then to play with her tits while she fucked me. She was quite small, and my vigorous thrust made her actually jog up and down, while her breasts moved in time with her body.

As I reached my orgasm, I would squeeze her nipples, and no matter how many times she had come, this would give her renewed pleasure — she used to lean forward and give a succession of squeals and moans — I used to call her my little piglet.

My present girlfriend's tits are not quite as big, but she is very inventive in their use. One thing she does, which always drives me wild, is to take my penis in her hand, squeeze it so that the little hole at the end opens, and then guide one of her nipples into the opening.

She calls this 'fucking the little boy' and says that the reason that I enjoy it so much is that all boys have a little of the girl in them, and would like to have it the other way for a change. But that's only her joke.

Anyway, the sensation of her nipples teasing my prick hole is absolutely unique — something that I have never enjoyed before. I have never known of anyone else ever trying it either — so perhaps some of your readers can be turned on to a new thing. Good luck to them if they do.

Let's have more and more pictures of big titted birds — can't get enough of them. And how about one or two articles on bras?.

MY TITS AT HIS MERCY

glory, on at least two occasions, I had come near the orgasm, by the sheer exhibitionist voluptuous feeling, and once had to excuse myself and go to the loo to wipe between my legs with a kleenex, it was then I decided to take off my knickers, for all the good they were. On arriving home at Rex's house he wasted no time in stripping me and then he stood a revealed in my lustful and unbridge need for him, he sunk his head down into my heavy breasts, and in it seems an eternity he sucked, rubbed, kneaded and massaged my tits until I came. In an earth shattering orgasm, good God, I'd been waiting it seemed like years for this, my fluid just flooded out, and ran down my legs, and then he slipped his cock into my mouth, I eagerly closed my lips upon it, little did he know that this was my first experience of "oral sex", my husband had insisted it filthy and perverted, but I was loving it, back and in my mouth slid over his knob end, and all the time he was squeezing my sore heavy tits, it was heaven, soon, I heard his breathing coming faster, and then 'bingo' I had my mouth full of beautiful come, I managed to swallow most of it in one gulp, it was my introduction to what Rex later told me was the "Nectar of the Knobs", however we then got down to the nitty-gritty, and soon his cock, was pounding up and down my cunt, with a slapping and slumping, our lovemaking seemed to last all night, and I was reluctant to end it, but before dawn broke I slipped away, and we arranged to meet a week later. My sex sessions carried on for some months, and really catered for my needs and my frustration completely disappeared, however one night when I arrived on one Thursday there was another man at the house, I instantly thought that my fun for the evening was off, but Rex soon re-assured me, he quickly introduced me to Henry, who from my point of view was quite a dishy individual, and on being told that he had been told about my sexual predictions, and was anxious to meet me, as he had always had a fascination for large breasted ladies. I took off my coat and Henry almost came in his pants, as he did a double-take on my exposed boobs, I was wearing a very low-cut away sweater and if I leant forward too much my swollen nipples were on view, the first thing 'H' did was to put his heavy throbbing cock between my tits, and I and I skillfully brought his off, and watched fascinatedly as great gobs of cum shot on my face, and I eagerly licked in a small amount, from which had dribbled on my mouth and chin, but soon both guys were at me hammer and tongs and soon I had my cunt and mouth filled with heated throbbing pricks all the time two painful hands were pulling and massaging my now aching tits, the morning came and on the drive home, I had a sore, aching and completely satisfied body. On a subsequent visit, Rex asked me how I felt about having some guests to increase my pleasure, and after thinking about it, I said I'd like to try it, little did I know what was to come.

It was, about two months hence, when I arrived for my weekly session, that I noticed three extra cars parked outside Rex's house, 'Christ'! I thought this is it, I went into the back entrance, and for a moment, I had a fit of the collywobblers, but Rex had heard me come in, and soon re-assured me, he suggested that I strip to the waist, and give the three new recruits a look at my boobs, to get them going, this I did and walking into the room I was very self-conscious but the chaps soon put me at ease, soon we were all stripped off and they were all fondling my tits, and expressing their pleasure in the usual way, I was fucked in all areas, but at one stage, I had a cock in all three holes, and one between my tits, all night as one cock shot its load up my cunt, another one was inserted. I was saturated inside me, and would still feel it dripping out the next day.

As a result of the new deal, I now can look forward every week to three or four men devotees of my "bosom pals", and probably have been fucked by over a hundred virile guys, life is terrific, if any of you readers see a contact ad starting "Full Bosomed Lady Would Like", you'll know it's me, and my twin beauties, would like to make your acquaintance, I'll write again and let you know of my new experiences.

my husband all but disappeared, and to my dismay my sex-life was as I thought finished, the usual happened my husband met a younger girl, and he eventually married her and emigrated, this left a terrible gap in my life, and in a couple of years I just moped, and generally took no interest in life, I became more and more engrossed in voluntary work, committees, charities and was developing into a prim reban spinster.

Until one day when waiting at the local garage for my car service to be completed, I discovered in the waiting room, hidden behind a cushion, a magazine, which on first sight I almost threw into the rubbish bin, 'a dirty magazine' but my curiosity got the better of me, and I began to leaf through the magazine, and found myself getting quite aroused, it was a "contact magazine", and then looking at the situation in realistic terms, I just wondered if I would profit from the situation and cure an 'itch' that was driving me crazy, for I have to admit, I was even missing the Saturday night "Fifty-up" turning over and going to sleep, I was particularly attracted to an advert which read:

G103X

Considerate, caring man W.E. would like to meet Ample-Bosomed lady for mutual satisfaction, No fees. Box 9103X

After considering the advert for over a week, I decided to take the plunge and write, within a few days, I had a phone call from a charming man called Rex, who suggested that we meet for a drink to get to know each other, "Good God"! when the day approached I felt like a young virgin on her first date, butterflies, lack of confidence, hot and cold sweats, you name it, I'd got it, I'd also got a wetness between my legs, and urge to be fucked like crazy.

I dressed for my date, and dug out of my wardrobe, some erotic underwear which my husband had bought me years ago, I put on a quarter cup sling bra, which made my already large breasts seem immense, I thought to myself "is this the overkill", but then reasoned if I don't get made love to, I'll just die of frustration, my ensemble was completed with, a pair of fishnet stockings, garter belt, and a g-string which was so see-through and flimsy that only five minutes after I put it on, it was dripping wet, and being drawn into the lips of my vagina, a split back skirt, and my piece de resistance was a completely see-through blouse which emphasised my enormous breasts and by now, swollen nipples, I made my face up threw on a coat, and off I drove to meet Rex.

We had dinner more than a few drinks, and then the moment I had been waiting for, all through the evening I'd seen the expression on his face, as he ogled my swollen breasts, peatformed and showing through my chiffon blouse in all their

of blue? Tasteful, and easily noticed, I would say.

I am probably a rarity among your readers — a woman. Not, of course, that I am so naive as to suppose that only men read erotica. But breast fetishism might well be an exception to the general rule. After all, breasts belong to women only — and therefore only men can admire them, and worship them, and fill the role of ardent breast fetishists.

This is not true, however. I, as a woman, am capable not only of admiring other women's breasts, but also of adoring my own. And, you can be sure, I have a pair of beauties to my credit — not super large but very firm and pretty, with delicate skin and big nipples.

Sometimes I do not need a man to turn me on. I just stand in front of the mirror in my own room, and take off my bra, having undone my dress. Then I manipulate and squeeze my breasts, and turn up the nipples so that I can lick them. Licking and tonguing them gives me the most intense pleasure, and sometimes I become almost giddy with the sensation.

Of course, I like a man to touch and lick my breasts too, and to knead and squeeze them with his hands. For this reason, I always look at a man's hands when I meet him. Men with small, weak hands are right out as far as I am concerned. I want men with strong, powerful, big hands, who can squeeze and rub my breasts roughly and strongly.

That really makes me melt — if a man takes hold of my breast I am immediately his. On one or two occasions, I have been picked up by men who handled my tits in public, or semi-public.

One in particular I shall always remember I was at a party and was laughing and talking generally, but noticed that one man in particular had his eyes on me. Eventually he got hold of me and steered me into a dark corner. I made a token resistance, but not much, because I really fancied him.

He started feeling my breasts, and this really turned me on. I moaned and thrust myself against him, and in a minute he had my dress open, and had pushed down my bra.

My tits were completely at his mercy, and he squeezed and manipulated them constantly. My eyes unfocused, I was feeling such pleasure.

Then he whispered in my ear, asking me to kneel, which I did. He opened his trousers, and pulled down his pants, inside which his enormous prick was already straining.

I took his prick between my breasts, and he worked it to and fro, to and fro, just as if it was inside my cunt, as he did so, I held my breasts against it, holding his shaft fast.

Quite quickly, he came, and his come shot all round the base of my neck, giving me a 'pearl necklace'. It was all over my neck and chin, and I loved it. We went home together, and made love all night — our friends could not imagine where we had gone, and several of them thought I had suddenly been taken sick! That's the sort of loving I like — my tits under the control of a man with big hands!

Dear Readers,

I feel that I must write and relate to you my experiences, I am forty four years of age, and coincidentally that is also my bust measurement, the rest of my figure is very trim, as I have always tried to keep in shape, my waist at 24 inches, and my hips measuring 36 inches, make me into what my "Sex Agent" calls a "Penis Popping of Pulchritude", you are probably wondering what I am talking about, Well! if you are sitting comfortably, then I'll begin.

After having being married, for a number of years, my husband and I, finally divorced, it had been a very drab period of my life, but being married to a wealthy man had its' obvious compensations, in fact I had everything a woman could desire, a beautiful house, expensive and luxurious holidays, but unfortunately after the first few years my rapport with

FILM REVIEWS

~BUSTMANS HOLIDAY

We do not apologise for reviewing the film 'Bustmans Holiday', This film is a vintage classic, starring – "Big Boobie Angie" who breasts the tape a 46", and Nicki Watson, who is a 50 + girl, supporting the girls is the 'horny masseur – Milton Reid', the well known Film-Heavy and remembered for his role, in the 'St Bruno' television adverts. He of the shaven head and aggressive 'non-smile'. The two girls do a swimming pool routine which includes a bout of wet-wrestling, and wet, sloppy tit action, then after Milton liberally douses their tits with champagne! we see an erotic massaging session with lots of tit-squeezing and split-leg shots, see the girls have their big, heavy tits kneaded and squeezed by the heavy Masseur.. Everybody comes on strong, this film is a must for the Tit Fanatics – collection.

TWO PASSIONATE BREAST FANCIERS

I do not often come to London, but when I did so, last December, I was very fascinated to see so many magazines in the shops concerning the matter of breasts.

To me, a woman's breasts are her greatest attribute. I never bother with a woman's legs, her face or her hair. What I look at first of all are her jugs, bristols, or whatever you happen to call them. If these are large, firm, and in good shape, then I am definitely interested.

Firmness is very important to me. Large, flabby breasts are not anything like so attractive, though they are better than no breasts at all.

Normally speaking, I am very shy with women, but immediately feel at home with girls with big boobs. This often surprises people who do not know me, and who think of me as very shy.

For example, I was with a few mates from work, and we went drinking in a pub a bit further away from home to the usual. The barmaid was the traditional blonde, bags of personality, and the most enormous knockers in the world. They really filled out her sweater, I can tell since it was not a polo neck, I could see right down inside.

What a lovely sight — two great breasts nestling inside a pair of very brief bra cups. I started chatting her up right away. My friends were increasingly amused as we got chattier and chattier.

I stood her drink after drink, and we got more and more friendly. At length, she went off to the toilet, and I took my opportunity. When she came out (it was a staff loo behind the bar) I managed to be there waiting in the passage.

She made a feeble protest, which I ignored — and after some preliminary protest, I managed to get her sweater up, and suck her incredible breasts.

She was very sensitive in that area, and I really got her sighing with pleasure, especially when I ran my tongue over her sensitive nipples.

I managed to make a date with her for the succeeding night, and she became my regular girlfriend. My friends didn't half laugh at me when I went back to them, and they wormed out of me what I had been doing, but I didn't care.

Breasts are my passion, and they always will be — I buy every breast magazine on the market.

since we have a large family, this has been often, I love to suck her milk. She lies on the sofa, and I nestle up against her like a child in need of food. It feels very peaceful, and I really do feel as if I was a baby again, enclosed in the arms of an all powerful mother.

When I have had a few gulps of the lovely fluid, I like to undress, and hold out my prick, which rapidly becomes rampantly erect, and let her dribble milk all over it from her breasts, drawing the fluid out by means of a breast pump.

When my prick is all slimy with the milk, my wife's soft hand masturbates me and brings me to a climax. I love this, and my prick feels super sensitive at such times. I revel in the feel of her firm, gentle hand as it glides up and down my shaft, and the slowly growing tickle of pleasure.

As I get ready to come, I lean forward, and shoot all over her amazing bosom.

This gives her a great thrill, and she spreads my seed all over her tits, massaging it into her creamy skin and rubbing it into her nipples.

She now smells incredibly sexy, and I get ready to breast fuck her. My prick slides in between her nipples and is gripped by those great firm globes. Soon I am panting and groaning and thrusting against her, and she is in spasms of delight.

I do not come all over her breasts a second time, however.

When we are both thoroughly worked up, and really in the grip of passion, she rolls back, and spreads her legs, and I lose no time in climbing in between them.

The subsequent fuck is made the more pleasurable because of the incredible build up that preceded it, and by the fact that we are both so completely aroused.

There are nothing like breasts to arouse a man, and send both him and his partner crazy with delight. They say the Americans are all boob crazy — well, I've always heard they were the leading nation of the world, and now I believe it.

Dear Ed,

I know what most readers relate stories that happened years ago, well this happened only last week! I met this French girl called Dominique in a park in Bristol, she was standing at the bar talking to the barmaid, who she obviously knew and when I decided another drink I told the barmaid, that she could give the young lady a drink and have one herself whilst they were chatting.

The pub began to fill up and each time the barmaid was called away I exchanged a few pleasant words with Dominique, whose English was incidentally was atrocious.

Eventually time was called and we found ourselves together, she certainly seemed friendly enough, so I decided to invest in a meal, in a restaurant only 200 yards from the pub, she ate marvelously, and when we left I asked her, if she would accompany me back to my hotel, she said yes so, I called a taxi, for 2 miles, and went back to my hotel, which was only a 2 star by the way, I sensed a certain unease in the taxi and enquired if anything was wrong, she immediately told me that she had a dislike of hotels and I thought Oh! dear, now the K B but she hesitated to add that she had just moved into a new flat and I could take her there, the flat turned out to be a bedsit but that was ok, by me and I set to work as soon as we got in, I could not understand, however, that in spite of lying next to me in the bed (our feet on the floor) whenever I attempted to fondle her breasts, she effectively blocked my advances, she did not however have the same inhibitions below the waist, and very shortly I had her skirt around her thighs, and my hand embeded in the crutch of her tights her reaction was extreme to say the least and the heavy breathing and spasmodic twitches of her entire body made me wonder just what, I had got hold of!

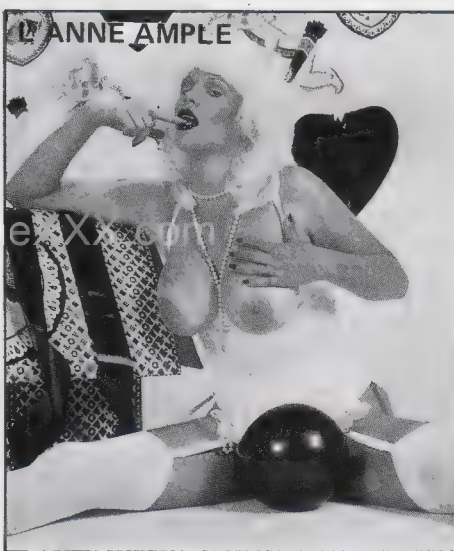

At last I managed to twist of her tights and panties, then the skirt, this left her naked from the waist down and she was very self concious. I asked her if we could remove the rest of her clothes, offering to strip myself if she would but she shook her head, after another incredible hour of heavy sighing, I eventually had her blouse off and was on the point of removing her bra when I saw that she was troubled and trying to hide something from me, I made light of the matter and after some coaxing and caressing managed to elight from her

If my dad knew I was writing to you he'd have a fit, he doesn't even know that I read your magazine, but I really enjoy it. I am 17 and I am very proud of my figure. My bosom is 43", and being slim, my breasts really look unusually large. I love getting the looks from all the men, and I always go without a bra as I love the feeling of my breasts swinging as I walk and this too always attracts a lot of attention. I have had several boyfriends already, and every one has gone crazy for my bosom. I enjoy looking at other women with great big breasts and I admit that it gives me a kick to look at pictures of women of my shape. My breasts are very sensitive and when I masturbate I can achieve an orgasm just by looking at pictures of big bosomed women while I play with my own tits. I don't think I'm unusual as I notice that other women with a big measurement look at my bust for far longer than you might expect when I'm sitting in a bus or in the street. To me really big breasts are beautiful and I think I'm very lucky to have such heavy tits with such a good firm outline. I also enjoy looking at my breasts in the mirror while my boyfriend has sex with me and when I see his hands on me, caressing my tits it always makes me go even more sexy. So keep up the good work as it's not only men who enjoy looking at big girls like me.

Miss V.M. Manchester

Dear Sir,
I would like your advice regarding a desperate problem I have, I am 24 years of age, and was married at 18, to a nice man, at the time I was out of work, living in digs and generally depressed, but then I met Bill, who is considerably older than me, but very nice all the same, what I did not know however was that he is a Tit - Fanatic, and still is even more-so, this was what probably attracted him to me in the first place. for I was "well endowed" in the booby department, This obviously prompted him to ask me to marry him, and as I said he seemed quite nice to me, and I thought "what the hell". Our marriage was very good for the first few months, but then he became very obsessed with my tits, and just before Christmas he announced that he had a special present for me, He had arranged with a doctor friend of his to give me a bust - job. I didn't mind this, but I objected to the increase he had in mind. We had a lot of arguments, but in the end I gave in because he is very dominant character,. However, I had the op done and my adequate 38, inch bust was increased to 46, inches, I found that my sensitivity had diminished, and my breast, felt hard and heavy, however I reconciled myself to the situation, until about a couple of years ago, when he arranged a further breast augmentation, and as before I gave in, and now my boobs are a ridiculous 58, inches, all feeling has gone, and apart from feeling a complete freak, I can't find any clothes to wear, and unless it is essential I stay in the house, but the effect on my husband is to make him a racing sex maniac, "Good God"! Morning, Noon, and night I get fucked from pillar to post, from the front, back, between my tits (his favourite position) in the mouth, up the bum, good gracious, yes I know — excuse the shawty language But what has really worried me now is that he has bought a copy of an American magazine called "Every Inch A Lady" which features a girl who has 80" tits, and he is making his terrible suggestions again, "Good Lord" I feel so uncomfortable as it is, can your readers make any suggestions as to what, I can do, I'm in a terrible fix.

'I was always very-self conscious of my bust when I was a teenager, I was so much bigger than all my friends and men never seemed to look at anything but my tits. Now I'm the opposite, I enjoy all the attention my breasts get from men. In sex I like a lot of time spent exciting me, with particular attention to my boobs. I enjoy displaying them to men, and I always wear tight sweaters, or see through tops to draw attention to my huge tits. I (language difficulties) that she was very sensitive in the erotic ones, I managed to sooth her and finally had her naked and the bed legs closed and an arm across her tits.

I rained kisses about her upper body in an attempt to dislodge the protected arm, but to now await and in desperation, pinned, the one arm by her side and then pushed the other arm away, this of course took both my hands so as she shook her head from side to side whispering all the time. "Non, Non, Non" I gently lowered my lips to her fabulous tits and took one of her nipples in my mouth she was fucking like hell and moaning loud enough to wake up the dead.

So I had to desist but to my delight she made no attempt to cover herself as before but just lay there with her eyes rolling, gasping for breath as though she'd gone 10 rounds with Larry Holmes, as I put my hands on her tits, once more she pleaded with me not to put any pressure on as she could not stand it, I just let my hands lightly caress all around her tits keeping away from her nipples but gradually getting firmer and heavier as I did this her moaning increased again and I suddenly grabbed as much tit as I could get in each hand with the centre of my palm rubbing furiously against her, throbbing nipples, her eyes opened wider than ever and she gave out an incredible noise, there lay absolutely still I realised that her eyes were closed and that she was in some kind of trance, or faint so I took the opportunity to open her legs and have a feet between them, she was wet through I then recommended kneading her tits and within a few seconds her eyes opened and she started moaning again. I have never experienced any girl, with so sensitive a body, her cheeks were deep red, her mouth open and her eyes just looked as I played with her tits, her legs were wide apart and it was apparent that she was organising all the time, when I lifted myself on top of her I realised that even the bed between her legs was saturated and while I fucked her, I never once stopped rolling her nipples.

I have tried to relate what was for me a fabulous experience because of the response, that I got but I am bound to say that I fear my partner did not enjoy it as much as I, she was just too sensitive, it seemed that the feeling was so excruciating as to be beyond the realms of normal pleasure.

Gary Giles.

Even before our first baby my wife's measurement was 43", and her breasts were very firm and pointed. Large, dark auroelas, and nipples that protruded a full half an inch at all times. When my wife came home from hospital with our first, I watched her giving the first feed and I began to shake with excitement when she pulled her nipple from the baby's mouth. Her measurement at that time was up to 45", and the nipple had increased to a width of half an inch. After the baby was bedded down my wife began to 'express' the left over milk, which is to encourage a healthy flow.

I said I was curious as to what the milk tasted like so she offered me a taste. I drank from the bowl she was using and that taste is never to be forgotten. My wife then said that I should kneel in front of her, and encouraged me to suck on her nipple. She began to breathe heavily, her head thrown back, asking me to suck harder, I was worried in case I hurt her, but I needn't have worried. As I gulped down the delicious milk I was overcome with excitement and my wife reached an orgasm.

When she pulled the nipple from my mouth I couldn't believe the size it had grown to, and made the other unsucked nipple look small in comparison. She said we should make the other one big to, so she massaged her breasts to make the milk flow while I sucked, she had another orgasm and I came without ever touching myself at all.

She fed the baby for nine months, partly to keep me happy. On our second child, she had so much milk she went up to a 46" D cup and produced a breast pump to help milk her breasts. She unbuttoned her blouse and from her bra fell two huge, swollen breasts, the nipples dripping with milk.

She placed the pump over one breast, and the mechanical action pulled the nipple into the machine and made the nipple extend as it was drawn in to an amazing length. The other breast dripped milk and my wife unzipped me and dripped the milk into me. What an orgasm we both had.

The sight and smell of breast milk still excites me to this day. I am prepared to pay £10 for any original photograph that is printed in the magazine showing a baby, at one breast, with the other breast and nipple clearly visible, and £15 for a picture of a breast actually expressing milk. I must remain anonymous because of the nature of my work, but if such a picture were to be published I would send the money to the editor for safe keeping and passing on to the sender of the pictures.

A.H.S. Birmingham

like my breasts and nipples rubbed, sucked, tickled, in fact any sort of stimulation I enjoy as long as there's plenty of time spent on them. I need my breasts touched throughout love making otherwise I can't get satisfaction. I think it's because I enjoy the effect that my tits have on men that I like so much physical attention on my breasts. Even if there's no man around at the time I feel sexy, I'll still give myself pleasure by standing in front of a mirror and fondling my breasts, and I like to pull my nipples until they stand out well, that makes them very sensitive and then I stroke them gently for a while longer. I often wear bras with a hole in the middle for my nipple to poke out as this way the constant rubbing of my naked nipples against my sweaters makes them stand out and feel very sexy. Also this looks good as my hard nipples poke out and make an outline under my sweater.'

Celia, aged 25.

'My breasts have always been very easily stimulated. I used to rub my nipples because I liked the feeling when I was very young. For me, the skin of my breasts reacts quickly to being touched and my nipples harden immediately. I enjoy very gentle fondling of my breasts because even the touch of my silk blouse against my breasts makes my nipples very, sensitive. I particularly enjoy having my breasts and nipples aroused by being rubbed with oil or cream. One occasion I remember was when I was sunbathing topless and a boyfriend who was with me rubbed sun tan lotion on me.

The feeling of that warm, slippery oil being rubbed into my nipples, which were standing out like huge teats, was marvellous. I just lay there and let him continue massaging me until I couldn't stand it any more and we went indoors to have sex.

Another thing I enjoy is soaping my breasts when I'm taking a shower. The feeling of hot water and soap pouring over me is lovely. I always finish by using the shower head close to my breasts. The cold water spraying their jets onto my nipples it's almost unbearable. The more I spray them the bigger they become until they stand out from my breasts about half an inch. I always tell my boyfriends how to handle my breasts. After all, they are a source of pleasure to my man as well as to me, so it's important that he knows how to handle them. I think that having big boobs is marvellous and I'm very proud of them.'

Julie, 30.

'I don't know whether all big girls find the same, but for me men have always concentrated on my boobs when they've had the opportunity to get me naked. I've always been a bit of a tease with my breasts, make them wait until the last moment until I've taken off my bra. I can't go bra less for long as the weight of my tits is too much for comfort after a while. I enjoy playing with my breasts while my partner watches me and I think that if he sees what I do to myself then he'll know just the way I like my nipples rolled between strong fingers. My nipples need a lot of stimulation to make them erect, but once they're hard I go mad for sex. So I like a man to take a long time pulling my nipples or pinching them nice and hard until they stand up. Then he has to go easy with my breasts as the softest touch feels like a squeeze once my nipples are poking out. I often put lipstick on my nipples to make them look good and another thing I do is to put sweet things like honey round them to give my man the fun of getting it off again! I enjoy having my breasts wobbling around in my bra, like when I'm on the bus or train, that always excites me, I don't know why. If I feel excited when I'm travelling, I'll put my hand in my blouse, when no one is looking, and give my boobs a nice massage. I also had that same excited feeling when I went riding. The horse belonged to a rich boyfriend and I had never ridden before. I sat up on the horse in a tight T-shirt and as he trotted along my boobs were bouncing around like mad, it was lovely. As soon as I'd finished my ride, I went up to my boyfriend and as soon as he saw the huge size of my nipples through the T-shirt, we went into his cottage for a really good sexy session.'
